miu miu

miutine [“mī-tyūn”] ve 1 Used to describe an individual whose spirit is unyielding. Unyielding. 2 One who navigates life on their own terms. Effortlessly. They do not show up on time but when they do, they are noticed. 3 Their actions are often subtle. They are the quietest of people. They know as if they do not want to stay home. 4 They are in their own minds. They permit themselves to do it. And even when they remain.
